

Camp Shakespeare is seeking energetic and passionate college students and career Arts Educators to join our team for a fun summer of theatre, Shakespeare, and creativity.

We are seeking Lead Instructors with at least a college degree in Theatre/related field or equivalent experience. In addition, we are seeking Co-Instructors who are working towards their college degrees or early careers that wish to gain practical experience alongside professional theatre-makers.

A great candidate for either of these positions would be someone with a passion for arts education, a positive “Yes, And!” attitude, and an interest in teaching theatre, Shakespeare, and other specialized skills. We look for candidates with diverse training in their field, proficiency in multi-tasking, comfort levels with in-person arts education, and the ability to maintain good humor and patience with our young theatre-makers.

About the Positions:

- All positions are paid - a weekly salary for Lead Instructors and stipends for Co-Instructors.
- We hope for Camp to be in-person, observing all CDC and local guidelines for COVID safety, with the possibility of moving to virtual should the need arise.
- All team members of Camp Shakespeare are responsible for their own housing.
- Camp Shakespeare runs Monday-Friday with working hours being approximately 8:15am-4:45pm.
- Camp will run from mid-June through mid-July.
- All team members will be required to attend a paid Orientation, Load In, and any performance nights that involve their campers (usually 2-3 Friday nights throughout the summer).

Kentucky Shakespeare is committed to maintaining a diverse and inclusive environment, and welcomes applicants for all positions from any race, color, religion, gender, gender identity or expression, familial status, sexual orientation, national origin, ability, age, or veteran status.

Please submit your resume, cover letter including any of your teaching experience, and a professional reference for your work to education@kyshakespeare.com.
